

Participation Requirements

The participation requirement applies to the financial year and it is the responsibility of the individual licence holder to inform the club of his/her actual participation by the 28th July each year. Failure to do so will result in the member's details being forwarded to the firearms branch for their action. The following is only a guide for the participation requirement

One class of handgun:

- You must participate in a minimum of six (6) handgun competitions in that class.
- I.e. Your absolute minimum would be six (6) competitions.

Two classes of handguns:

- You must participate in a minimum of six (6) handgun competitions and these can be made up in one or both classes.
- You must have a minimum of four (4) attendances in each class.
- I.e. Your absolute minimum would be six (6) competitions and two (2) attendances. In other words a minimum of eight (8) shoots.

Three classes of handguns:

- You must participate in a minimum of six (6) handgun competitions and these can be made up in one, two or all three classes.
- You must have a minimum of four (4) attendances in each class.
- I.e. Your absolute minimum would be six (6) competitions and six (6) attendances. In other words a minimum of twelve (12) shoots.

Four classes of handguns:

- You must participate in a minimum of six (6) handgun competitions and these can be made up in one, two or more classes.
- You must have a minimum of four (4) attendances in each class.
- I.e. Your absolute minimum would be six (6) competitions and ten (10) attendances. In other words a minimum of sixteen (16) shoots.
